SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS/LECTURES

- An Advanced Preaching Seminar will be offered in the Spring quarter, designed for those who have already shown a special aptitude for preaching and who feel they may have a special vocation for it. A maximum of 10 students will be admitted. Elective. All those admitted must have already completed two courses in the Preaching Department. If you wish to be considered for enrollment, pick up an application form from the Faculty Secretary (Payton 204), and return it either to the Faculty Secretary or Ian Pitt-Watson's office (Payton 215). The closing date for application is March 1.
- Marriage Encounter Seminar - Feb. 26-28 will be the weekend of the next Episcopal Marriage Encounter Weekend. If you are interested please contact Vera Wils or Mark Baker (Box 1188). Don't just talk about enriching your marriage, do something about it.
- Self-Defense: Tear gas is not enough - self-defense takes mental as well as physical preparation. A series of classes will begin at the Pasadena YWCA on Feb. 13. Call Marie Wood (793-5171) for more information.
- The Institute for Religion and Wholeness presents Morton Kelsey - "Spiritual Issues and Holistic Health in the Western World". Sunday, Feb. 28, 7-9:30 p.m., Mudd Auditorium, Claremont School of Theology. Contact Dr. Newton Malony, x. 3323, for further info.
- All are invited to a lecture sponsored by CAPS featuring Dr. Robert King, Director Counseling Ministries, who will be speaking on "Guilt: The Overworked Emotion." This will take place after the CAPS Luncheon on Tuesday, Feb. 23, noon, in P101B. You may bring your lunch or just come and hear Dr. King.
- Understanding Therapy as a Resource: A Guide for Women in Ministry - Tuesday, Feb. 23, 7:30 p.m. in the Geneva Room. Topics include counseling as a pastor, knowing when and how to refer, working as a pastor-therapist team, understanding women's issues in counseling, and personal survival for women in ministry. Speakers include Liz Nordquist, Colleen Zabriskie, Anne Glasser. Open to all women students. (Office of Women's Concerns)
- Pat Gundry is coming to campus! Friday, March 5, at 10 a.m. and noon, the author of Woman, Be Free; Heirs Together (on egalitarian marriage); and The Complete Woman will be speaking in open convocations. Plan now on attending.

A video interview with Gary Collins (one of the programs in the Vistas in the Psychology of Religion produced by Fuller Audio Visual Department). H. Newton Malony, Professor of Psychology, Graduate School of Psychology, Fuller Theological Seminary, interviewer.

MEETINGS/DISCUSSIONS

Prayer meeting for the unreached peoples meets every Wednesday at noon in the SWM Conference Room. All are welcome to join us praying for Muslim, Chinese, tribal and Hindu peoples.

HEALTH CARE

- The Heartmobile will be on campus Feb. 23. Take advantage of their low cost blood tests. These tests determine heart risk factors and provide an extensive health review. Request a sign-up card and descriptive brochure through Box 38.
- Smog and Lung Damage: A packet of information is available from the American Lung Association. The materials include what to do during the three most common types of smog, a glossary of air pollution terms, and a booklet on your health and air pollution. Request yours through Box 38.

FINANCIAL AID

- Financial Aid and Employment updates: Nothing has been finalized as yet on the Administration's Budget. We will let you know when it has, and urge you to include this matter in your prayers. Watch the SEMI and the financial aid bulletin board by the mailroom.
- To list job openings, call Brenda Salter, x. 3869. Her schedule this quarter is Monday and Wednesday, 1-5; Tuesday and Thursday 8-12. To find a job, look at the board mounted on the landing going upstairs in the Ethnic Ministries building (#150). Please be reminded that you must be a student, spouse, employee or family of faculty of Fuller to use this service.
- To have questions about loan applications answered, Regina McClure is on duty on Mondays from 8-12 and on Tuesday and Thursday from 8-11. Do not delay if you are planning to ask for a loan for the current school year. No loan applications will be accepted for the 82-83 school year until mid-June or later (if we are still eligible at that time). If you will be in school more than half-time this summer, and if your current loan ends in June, now is the time to apply for June 82 to June 83, for most lenders.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Students wishing to participate in the Spring Alumni Phonathon should call Bev Mac Rae, 3623. Pay - $4/hr. Dates: 3/1-4, 8-11, 5:30-9:30 p.m. Training: 2/25, 4-5 p.m. or 2/26, 12-1 p.m.

MISCELLANEOUS

- ASC Elections will be Feb. 23-25 in the Garth. You will receive a ballot in your box on Tuesday morning. Please vote for the candidates of your choice in person at the table in the Garth from 11-1:30.
- Ethnic Mental Health in the '80's: It's Psychological and Theological Dimensions: Dr. Rowland, the Student Conference Committee and the faculties of the School of Psychology and Theology wish to thank the entire Fuller Theological Seminary Community for the widespread participation in the conference held on campus Friday and Saturday (Feb. 19 and 20).
- Free psychotherapy - 10 sessions of free individual psychotherapy are being offered by predoctoral graduate students in the School of Psychology as of the first week of April. Limited openings are available. If interested, call x. 3320 ASAP or contact David Brokow (TA to Dr. McLemore), Box 1166.

- Are you looking for bread, cheese, and sparkling cider for an outing with a special friend? Get your supplies at the Fuller Food Co-op. Open 3:30-6:30 Monday and Tuesday. In back of the Catalyst. (They have now moved to the room beside their original room.)
- The Women Students Committee, which represents and plans for women students on campus, will have position openings for the next school year. These include: Women's Representative, a paid ASC position, and women to represent every school and program. Job descriptions are posted on the Women's Board or in the Women's Center. For questions, contact Suzanne Shelton, Box 511 or Libbie Patterson, x. 3837.
- Fuller Photographers! We need to borrow your slides of Fullerites (students, faculty, staff, administration, etc.). They will be used to create a multi-media slide show for the SOT Graduation Banquet and will be returned to you by graduation. Send them to Evelyn Dugan, Box 470. Thanks for your help!
- Graduating seniors: Spring is soon to be upon us and that means it is time to order academic hoods. Since hoods are custom made, it takes approximately 12 weeks for delivery. If you have plans/aspirations to be in a formal church setting or a teaching position, you should seriously consider buying a hood. For more information, ask one of the bookstore staff. (This is not to be confused with the hoods worn for the graduation ceremony.)
- 1982 Fuller Follies: "A Kaleidoscope." Don't miss the show! (What good is staying alone in your room?) February 26, 7 p.m., in the Pasadena Christian School, 1492 N. Garfield (one block north of Washington). Admission complimentary. Questions to David Robinson, Box 1364.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeff and Holly Crapson are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Heather Marie, who was born February 11, and weighed 7 pounds, 15½ ounces.

NEW ARRIVALS IN THE BOOKSTORE include:

Biblical Studies

- Jack Finegan, Archaeological History of the Ancient Middle East (Westview)--the well-known biblical archaeologist gives a detailed account of the history of the ancient Near East, from antiquity to 330 BCE.
- Claus Westermann, Elements of Old Testament Theology (John Knox)--the distinguished OT scholar synthesizes the fruits of his long career in the field with this important contribution to OT theology.
- Claus Westermann, Praise and Lament in the Psalms (John Knox)--a reprint of Westermann's major study on the Psalms.
- Clark M. Williamson, Has God Rejected His People? Anti-Judaism in the Christian Church (Abingdon)--a review of what the author considers to be the pervasive influence of anti-Jewish ideas in the history of the Christian church, and a proposal for how these ideas can be eliminated among Christians today.
- Norman L. Geisler, Decide for Yourself: How History Views the Bible (Zondervan)--selected quotations from the Bible, the early fathers, the medieval fathers, the Reformers, Orthodox, Liberal, Fundamentalist, Neoorthodox, Liberal-Evangelical and Neoevangelical views, so that the reader can "decide for him/herself" about the inerrancy issue (with a little help from the author).

Church History

- W. H. C. Frend, The Early Church (Fortress)--a reprint of Professor Frend's penetrating account of how Christianity emerged from a Palestinian Jewish sect to become the religion of the Greco-Roman world.

Theology

- Jan Milic Lochman, The Theology of Praise: The Kingdom, The Power, The Glory (John Knox)--a Basel professor, known for his work in liberation theology, tries to find grounds for praise in light of the problems in today's world.
- Thor Hall, The Evolution of Christology (Abingdon)--taking his cue from the developing Christology in the NT, the author tries to move on to make Christology relevant to the modern Einsteinian universe and today's cosmological perspective.
- Stephen T. Davis (ed.), Encountering Evil: Live Options in Theodicy (John Knox)--essays by a group of Claremont scholars--John Cobb, David Griffin, John Hick, John Roth, Frederick Sontag, and the editor.
- Rosemary Radford Ruether, Disputed Questions: On Being a Christian (Abingdon)--the prolific American theologian and feminist traces her own pilgrimage in the faith.
- Tilden Edwards, All God's Children (Abingdon)--the journey of faith of a "true-blue, cross-fertilized American" of six ethnic heritages now ministering as an Episcopal priest in the Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation.
- D. Scott Rogo, Miracles: A Parascientific Inquiry into Wondrous Phenomena (Dial)--a lecturer in parapsychology surveys a wide variety of wondrous occurrences in the history of Christianity; and offers a thesis that these miracles are generated by the formidable powers of the human mind.

Comparative Religion

- J. Isamu Yamamoto, Beyond Buddhism (InterVarsity)--a basic introduction to the Buddhist tradition by a former researcher with the Spiritual Counterfeits Project.

Ministry

- E. Margaret Howe, Women and Church Leadership (Zondervan)--the fruits of Dr. Howe's research, a large part of which was completed while she was a visiting scholar here at Fuller, which traces the journey of women in the church from early history to today's situation.
- Jack L. Seymour and Donald E. Miller, Contemporary Approaches to Christian Education (Abingdon)--an investigation of five modern approaches through which programs can be developed: religious instruction, faith community, development, liberation and interpretation.
- Harris W. Lee, Theology of Administration: A Biblical Basis for Organizing the Congregation (Augsburg)--a concise and inexpensive handbook for lay leaders.

Psychology and Counseling

- Edward P. Wimberly, Pastoral Counseling and Spiritual Values: A Black Point of View (Abingdon)--an analysis of the current state of spirituality in the black community, and how current counseling techniques can be of service.
- Diane Detwiler-Zapp and William Caveness Dixon, Lay Caregiving (Fortress)--how the laity can function effectively as a front line and a support group in team approaches to pastoral care within the congregation.
- Flavian Dougherty (ed.), The Meaning of Human Suffering (Human Sciences)--eminent clergy and human service professionals address the fundamental problem of suffering from philosophical, theological and existential perspectives--a product of the First International Ecumenical Congress on the Meaning of Human Suffering at Notre Dame.
- G. Gail Gardner and Karen Olness, Hypnosis and Hypnotherapy with Children (Grune and Stratton)--a comprehensive text by a clinical child psychologist and a pediatrician.

Marriage and Family

- Jim Conway, Walter Trobisch et al., Your Family: A Love and Maintenance Manual for People with Parents and Other Relatives (InterVarsity)--insights on family life first appearing in HIS Magazine.

Issues

- David Talbot and Richard E. Morgan, Power and Light: Political Strategies for the Solar Transition (Pilgrim)--the alternative to nuclear power for those interested in promoting non-proliferation.

Miscellaneous

- Sally Magnusson, The Flying Scotsman: A Biography (Quartet)--the story of the life of Eric Liddell which was the basis for the current movie, Chariots of Fire.
